Living to Bless the World is fun. Hopefully, you've been motivated to participate in the Bless Bay County scavenger hunt. I was talking about this activity with my family a few weeks ago. We were in the SAM's parking lot and JD saw a woman who just finished unloading her cart. After taking her cart for her and putting it in the parking lot cart corral. He jumped into the car and with a big smile said – "I can check that one off the list." It doesn't have to be intimidating or weird. And, the more we do it, the more normal it becomes. When we develop habits of doing little things to bless others, it becomes a big, huge, noticeable contrast to the way of the world. The world's way is to keep your head down, mind your own business, and look out for yourself. Some may find it peculiar for us to be blessing others all the time. But, hey, we're aliens and foreigners here. Our King's ways are not the world's ways. Hopefully, they DO notice something different - and maybe even ask us about it! What a fun way to witness to others about the reign of Christ! This has been a message of the Church of Christ at Jenks Ave. – Developing Lifestyles of a church of Christ on Mission. – God bless you and have a great day!
