Good morning fellow citizens. Living the Reign of Christ means that we are ambassadors of a heavenly kingdom where the world has never been. An ambassador understands the needs, culture, and desires of the nation and leaders they represent. As Christ's ambassadors, we cannot understand what we are doing here, or what is expected of us unless we spend time in the Word of God – the Magna Carta of our Lord's Reign. As we commit ourselves to knowing the Bible, we can follow what he bid us in Romans 12:2 – “Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is – his good, pleasing and perfect will.” As Christ's ambassadors, we shouldn't expect ourselves to think and act in worldly ways. Instead, we think and act more and more as foreigners – representing the will and culture of our Eternal Home. This has been a message of the Church of Christ at Jenks Ave. – Developing Lifestyles of a church of Christ on Mission. – God bless you and have a great day!
