

I HAVE A DREAM

I have a dream, but not the dream of a society that judges others by the color of their skin, but by their character as Martin Luther King Jr. did. I greatly desire this kind of society or community. No, instead I have dreams of unpreparedness. You know, the dreams where you go to school or work and forget some or all of your clothes or forget you are taking a class and it is the end of the semester. If you went to a Christian college, you probably have dreamed it is the end of the semester and you forgot to go to chapel. I have dreamed endless varieties of this dream and bet you have, too.

Reportedly, 54% of people dream about realizing they missed a class all semester and 43% dream of being lost or unable to find the right classroom. It is reported these dreams are caused by real life stress, new responsibilities or high stake situations. These are common situations for all of us, so what so what is the spiritual take-away?

Are you prepared? Hebrews 9:27, "And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment,..." There is coming the end of the "semester" and if you are not in Christ, you will fail the final exam. No amount of your work will have you ready, only Jesus. Being spiritually prepared is about living in a state of readiness, steadiness and trust in God rather than the fear of the future.

- Lord's Supper Each week we celebrate our unity and reflect on the sacrifice of Christ. (1 Corinthians 11:23-26)
- Offering Offerings are an act of obedience and gratitude. (1 Corinthians 16:1-2) Guests are not expected or obligated to give.
