

SNAPSHOTS OF L2L

Wow! What a great Lads 2 Leaders Convention we had in Orlando last weekend! This morning in our worship service, we'll recognize and celebrate our young people who worked so hard and represented you so well. I wish everyone could go. I want to share with you some of my "snapshot" memories from last week so you can get a glimpse of this beautiful event.

In my head I see little Jacob sitting on his knees on Jay Morgan's lap peppering him with questions about animals. And I see Jay patiently answering this curious little sponge. Jacob will always remember godly men in the church encouraging him on his journey.

I see Tim and Lauren laughing in the hub (the hub is the hospitality suite where the whole group shares meals together). Tim and Lauren laughing is such an indelible picture in my head because they work so hard to make sure everything is taken care of from food, to room assignments, judges for events, keeping everyone on schedule, and dealing with many, many issues that present themselves throughout the weekend. And yet, they serve with such gracious attitudes that I see them laughing with everyone and enjoying the sweet fellowship of God's people.

I see families relaxing together by the pool while the kids expend their last kilowatts splashing and playing together. I see young people pouring out their hearts in speeches and songs that proclaim the goodness of God and commit to His service. I see teenagers sitting in a circle in the lobby playing card games. I see young friends cheering for one another and comforting each other. I see unity, encouragement, fellowship, love, patience, and kindness on full display.

I see the church in Acts 2:42-47, and a vivid foretaste of Revelation 7:9-17!

About Our Worship
