

FANTASTIC FATHERS

There are a lot of examples of fatherhood in the Bible. Some being incredibly good examples, and others not so much. Joseph, the father of Jesus, is a shining example. Although we really don't read much about him in the pages of the Bible, tradition and context hold that he was a good man, a good husband, and a good earthly father to the Savior. Abraham could be seen as a complicated example, because he loved Isaac dearly, but also was willing to sacrifice him according to God's command (even though he didn't end up having to).

Fatherhood is a huge privilege and blessing given to men, but it also comes with an awesome responsibility. God is constantly referred to, and refers to himself as, our Father. That example alone shows us the significance and impact of fatherhood! God clearly bestows a lot of weight on the relationship of a father to his children. Here are just a few of the instructions given to fathers in the Bible:

1. Provide for his family (Mt. 7:9-10; 1 Tim 5:8)
2. Instruct his children (Prov. 1:8)
3. Exhort, encourage and implore children (1 Thess 2:11)
4. Raise the children in the discipline and nurture of the Lord without provoking them or exasperating them, causing them to lose heart (Eph. 6:4; Col. 3:21)
5. Discipline his children (Heb 12:7)
6. Love his wife (Eph 5:25,28,33)

These are also things that are modeled by our heavenly Father!

There are many men who, while they may not biologically be a father, step into that role and model what it means to be a Christian father. What an awesome responsibility to step into and own. Whatever role of fatherhood you might fill, thank you. Continue fighting the good fight!

In God's love,

Bin
