

THE POWER OF CHANGE

I know that this is debatable, but perhaps, other than Jesus himself, the person to have the greatest impact on the Church was Paul. What I do not think is debatable is that Paul changed the course of human history through his legacy and the THIRTEEN New Testament letters that he wrote.

What was the secret of Paul’s legacy? How does one go from Persecutor of the Church to Apostle of the Church? Very simply, Paul was a changed man. In Acts 9 we read of the change in Paul’s life. Change cannot be overstated in the life of Paul, nor can it be overstated in the lives of Christians. Like Paul, all Christians have to encounter the gospel power of Jesus. The gospel of Christ worked in Paul before it ever worked through him. It is no different in our own lives. We have to let the gospel power work in us before it can work through us. The gospel power working in us is a building block to the gospel working through us. Sometimes we forget this basic principle of foundation as it applies to our Christian lives.

It has been said that “Changed people change people!” Certainly, this is true for Christians. The power of Christ must work in us long before it can work through us! I PRAY that, as individual Church members, we long for the power of the gospel to work in us (Galatians 5:22-23). I believe that when we allow this to happen, the gospel working through us (Matthew 28:18-20) will be a natural result. May our PRAYER be that we truly allow the life-changing power of the gospel to take place in us in such a way that the people we encounter recognize us as different from others they encounter!

In His love,

Jim Holsombake
