Hearts Full of Thankfulness

As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving, we pause to remember that every good gift comes from our Father above (James 1:17). Many of us carry heavy burdens: health concerns, family struggles, financial pressures, and often feel unsettled. Yet even in hard seasons, we have much to be thankful for. We have the hope of salvation in Christ, a God who hears our prayers, and a family of believers who walk beside us. As Paul wrote, we are to give thanks in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

To each of you: the elders love you and are thankful for you. We thank God for you continuously. God gave each of us work to do in His kingdom, and yours doesn't go unnoticed. Whether it is seen by many or done quietly, it matters to the Lord and to this church.

Thank you for the many ways you serve:

- Teaching Bible and children's classes
- Preparing/serving at the Lord's Table
- Visiting the sick, homebound, and grieving
- Sending encouraging cards, calls, and texts
- Leading Bible studies and sharing the gospel
- Hosting/leading small groups
- Mentoring/encouraging our young people
- Running audio, video, and the livestream
- Preparing bulletins communications
- Cleaning/setting up for services/events
- Planning, preparing, serving meals
- Leading singing and worship
- Greeting /welcoming visitors
- Working in the nursery
- Preparing/delivering meals
- Praying for one another
- Helping those in need
- Supporting missions/outreach
- Maintaining building/grounds
- Ushering during services
- Providing rides/transportation
- Giving generously to the Lord's work

If you serve in a way not listed, please know we are grateful for that too.

This Thanksgiving, let us give thanks for God's blessings, for one another, and for the privilege of serving Him together. Keep up the good work, "for in the Lord your labor is not in vain" (1 Corinthians 15:58).

With love and gratitude,

Jim Hurley

About Our Worship

Prayer	As an integral part of Christian life, our worship includes a lot of prayer. (I Thessalonians 5:17)
Singing	Worship is interactive and participatory. (Ephesians 5:19) We invite you to join in as we praise God through singing.
Lord's Supper	Each week we celebrate our unity and reflect on the sacrifice of Christ. (I Corinthians 11:23-26)
Offering	Offerings are an act of obedience and gratitude. (I Corinthians 16:1-2) Guests are not expected or obligated to give.
Message	The teaching/preaching time seeks to communicate God's truth in relevant ways. (2 Timothy 4:2)

J2J DONATIONS

Thank you

Dear Church of Christ family,
Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for the love and support you have shown me during the passing of my husband, Don.
Your sympathy cards, your prayers, your visits, and the food you so generously brought meant more than I can fully express. In a time when so much felt overwhelming, your kindness brought real comfort, and I felt held up by this church family.
I am deeply grateful for each of you, and for the way you have stood beside me.

With love and thanks,
Gail Clark
