I ought to start with a confession here.

I am a tiny bit of a scrooge when it comes to the Christmas season. I don't like to celebrate in any way until Thanksgiving has had its day. I don't want to hear Christmas carols, see Christmas lights, or displays at the stores. None of it. Not until Thanksgiving has come and gone. I will admit that when our family drives north for Thanksgiving, I only let them listen to Christmas music on the way back. One holiday at a time; anything else is madness. I know. I have a problem.

Today, against every fiber of my being, I will make this one small exception, in order to get you excited for the greatest night in the life of our church family – the Jenks Avenue Christmas Party! There's a certain magic about the FAC when it's decorated for the holidays and the stage is all set up. The fireplace crackling, the lights on the tree glistening, the echoes of Jene Holley reprising his role as the Jenks Santa Claus. It's a GLORIOUS evening.

This year will be no exception, and you won't want to miss it! There'll be great food, fun games, door prizes, surprise guests, fellowship that is second to none, comedy that might best be described as "not for everybody." Frankly, I don't know why you're still reading; you should be out in the foyer buying tickets and cancelling your other plans.

Mark your calendars for Friday night, December 11, at 6:00 p.m. in the Family Activity Center. Bring your whole family (there will be activities just for the kids!) and that neighbor looking for a church home. The more, the merrier!

If you have a "talent" that you'd be willing to "show", come and see me. I need your help.
